SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson July 31, 1971. Subject: The March of Missions Scripture Text, "And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." Acts 2:3,4.
"In our last lesson we studied Christ's commission to His church. This lesson demonstrates that we cannot fulfill the commission apart from the power of the Spirit. Witnesses cannot share what they have not received or tell of that which they have not experienced. After living with Christ and learning from Him, they still needed His Spirit to give them power. He told them not to go until they had received it. Luke 24:49. The acts of the Apostles, pages 36, 37, gives us the following essential steps the disciples took in preparing for the reception of the Holy Spirit."
"Putting away all differences all desire for the supremacy, they came close together in Christian fellowship". . . what followed? The sword of the Spirit newly edged with power and bathed in the light of heaven, cut its way throughunbelief. Thousands were converted in a day". Acts of the Apostles, page 38.
Lesson Outline - 1. The Missionary Commitment of the Early Church. Acts 1:8. 2.The Apostles' Early Missionary Efforts - John 1:3. 3. Peter's Missionary Vision Act 10:34. 4. Paul, The Pattern for Missionary Service, Rom. 1:4. 5.John-

Missionary To Speak At Bible Baptist

Rev. Walter Groover, Missionary to the Yucatan, New Mexico, has been on the field for a number of years and has established three Independent Baptist Churches. They are self-operated and self-sustained.

Bro. Groover will be meeting the people Sunday morning and getting acquainted during the Sunday school hour and then speaking to the Young People Sunday night about the missionary work in Mexico at the Youth Rally. Then in the evening service at 7:30 p.m., he will be showing slides and movies of the work there in Mexico.

The Pastor and members of the Bible Baptist Church would like to take this opportunity to extend to our many friends in the Appomattox area, a personal invitation to come hear and see about the missionary work that our church is doing in Mexico.

Rev. Earnie W. Lucas, Pastor

Missionary Emphasis, John 1:-12. 6, Witnessing in All Ages, Rev. 12:11.

"The disciples were to begin their work where they were: The hardest and most unpromising field was not to be passed by. So everyone of Christ's workers are to begin where he is . . . "But the community and soul as all the world" is not to be lost sight of . . . He teaches us to look upon every needy soul as our brother, and the world as our field." The Desire of Ages pp. 822,823. How widespread was the witness on the day of Pentecost? Please read Acts 2, Whole Chapter.

Peter being a Jew said in Acts 10:34 (last part) "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons". At that time Peter shared the reluctance of Christ's followers to carry the gospel to the Gentiles. In order to help Peter and his associates overcome the concept of exlusion, God gave him a vision. On hearing this account the brethren were silenced (Read the vision as described in Acts 10:9-16) Paul's life of ministry among the Gentiles was made clear to him through the following experiences: 1. On the road to Damascus Acts 26:15-18. 2 When his sight was restored by Ananias Acts 22:12-16. 3 In a trance in Jerusalem Acts 22:-17-21. John's missionary service seems to have consisted largely of his pastorate of the Ephesus district, John had been given a vision of the entire great controversy between Christ and Satan. He had seen all those who overcame by Christ's victory on Calvary. Here John was shown the Church victorious in Rev. 12.

Sabbath School 10 o'clock a.m. Worship Service 11 o'clock. We invite you to fellowship with us. COME!

One For The Road!

Kevin Eugene Martin (left) buys a candy bar "for the road" in last-minute preparation before leaving for Camp Easter Seal on July 25. Kevin, whose trip is sponsored by the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club, is a Speech Camper. In the next four weeks, he will receive intensive individual therapy from highly qualified specialists and, in addition, will enjoy swimming, horseback riding and all the other pleasures that go with summer camp. Camp Easter Seal, operated by The Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. of Virginia and co-sponsored by the Junior members of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, is exclusively for children with physical handicaps and those, like Kevin, whose speech is impaired. Here, these special boys and girls receive therapy and are able to take part in a variety of typical summer camp activities that are geared to their ability. It is located in Craig County, near New Castle, Virginia. Kevin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Martin of Route 1, Appomattox, is doing his shopping at Campbell's Grocery, owned and operated by Norman and Shirley Campbell. They have a small daughter, Lisa, who "helps" in the store, too.

More About Cucumbers

Oh, that wonderful season of lettuce, tomatoes --cucumbers, etc. is with us . . and just like last year (and hopefully, for years to come), Appomattox gardeners are growing cucumbers --some of them long enough to occupy the entire width of a refrigerator shelf. At least that's true of the "foot long" cucumbers raised by Abdullah Franklin and others. Says Abdullah, "they're supposed to be a foot long, but I have some 19, 20 inches and longer." Perhaps, like a now-famous television slogan, Appomattox cucumbers "try a little harder". The cucumber seed, some of it, anyway, comes from Mrs. L.M. Wilkes at Wilkes' Plant Farm.

Youth Revival

On August 14 - 16 at 7:30 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church in Concord, Virginia, there will be a Youth Revival for all ages that will top all other Youth Revivals you have ever attended! The theme is "PASS IT ON", and singing groups from the surrounding areas will be participating.

R. G. Rowland, pastor of the Sandy Level Baptist Church, Sandy Level, Va. will be the speaker all three nights including Sunday morning worship services.

Come learn the "true' facts behind the Jesus Revolution! We promise that you will see Christ in a way that YOU have never seen HIM manifested before.

This is one revival you don't want to miss!

HOST FOR TOUR OF HOLY LAND

The Reverend Oscar Bryant of Appomattox, will be the host for a Bible Lands Pilgrimage (and Rome) departing Nov. 1, 1971 from New York for a ten day tour of Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Jericho, Samaria, Galilee, Capernaum, Nazareth, other parts of Palestine plus a trip to Tel Aviv, Jaffa and Rome.

The tour, itself, says Mr. Bryant is not expensive and travelers can take up to 24 months to pay for the trip.

Says Mr. Bryant, "I invite you to share with me in one of life's greatest thrills . . . to visit the very places where Jesus walked, taught and lived His earthly life."

He says, further, that the tour is offered at a great savings in price but not in quality, inasmuch as travelers will enjoy first - class hotels and three meals daily. Price of the tour is all-inclusive.
